From the President...

Greetings to the busiest folks on campus.

I know you are all engaged in the details of pulling it all together and attending to lastminute tasks and unforeseen crises.

The Executive Committee and several of the committee chairs met in Coeur d=Alene in March to plan the fall conference. We had a productive meeting led by President-elect, Dan Wick. Coeur d=Alene is a terrific place for a conference; we scouted out some great restaurants; and the hotel is a world-class resort. This is a conference you won=t want to miss.

Several of the committees are busy. Debra Barger has mailed a questionnaire to update the directory and is collecting opinions for Jil Warn and the site selection committee regarding moving the WASSA Conference from fall to spring. Please respond to this questionnaire. At Coeur d=Alene we will vote on conference dates and other resolutions being drafted by the Resolutions Committee.

Warm regards to you all. I hope you have your best summer session ever!

- Lee Golden, President

People in WASSA

Name change: Michele Wilson, Western Oregon State College, to Michele Price. Please note it in your WASSA Directory.

NAASS to Convene in Rose City

Dori Beeks, Western Oregon State College, hosted the Executive Officers of the North American Association of Summer Session in Portland, Oregon, on January 22, to plan the 30th annual conference.

Attendees included: President Nancy Tischler, Pennsylvania State University; Past President John Cudd, Jr., North Carolina State University; President-elect and principal conference planner Sybil Smith, Boston University; and NAASS Executive Secretary Michael Nelson, St. Louis, MO.

Dori will solicit WASSA members to help in carrying out the various tasks that are inherent in hosting a conference of this size. Please say AYes!@ when she calls. And be sure to mark your calendars for the conference dates, November 14-17, in Portland.

The last time NAASS met in Portland was in 1970 and it has been some time since the Western Region has served as site. A big turnout of WASSA members is desired to help extend a hearty welcome to colleagues from across the country and north and south of the border.

WASSA Directory to be Updated

The newlyformed Membership Committee, chaired by Debra Barger, is creating a new directory. You should have received a note from Debra requesting corrections.

The return deadline was May 24. If your form slipped beneath the substratum on your desk rather than into the mail to Debra, excavate it now and fax the information to her today (fax: 9168984020). She may still have time to get your information into the directory. (There are no guarantees, in life.)

Charlie: It's Not a Fragrance, It's a Catalog Service

If you wish to have your summer catalog reviewed and critiqued in fine detail, including marginalia and comments, the cost of the service is as follows:

$1.00 per prose page, with a minimum $60 charge and a maximum $150 charge per catalog. Prose pages include covers, indexes, and all pages with copy (including pages of course descriptions). Not included as prose pages are class schedule pages which do not describe courses but only list the times and places of the courses.

To take advantage of this service:

1. Calculate the payment due
2. Make a check out to "WASSA Catalog Service"
3. Send two copies of the catalog firstclass to:
